"Sometimes the future changes quickly and completely, and we're left with only the choice of what to do next. We can chose to be afraid of it, to stand there trembling not moving, assuming the worst that can happen or we step forward into the unknown and assume it will be brilliant." - Christina Yang, Grey's Anatomy

As it comes to an end I want to thank the people who got me through high school. My parents who supported me through everything and siblings who shaped me into who I am today. Shoutout the girls, they know who they are, for making every weekend unforgettable and Huge Loss for making AP Biology and AP Chemistry possible.

"Winners always want the ball when the game is on the line."

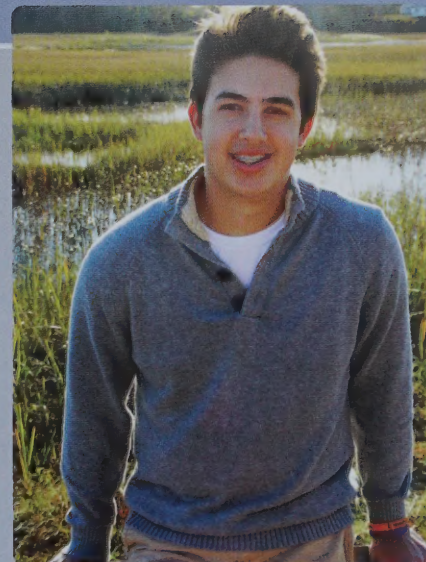

- The Replacements

Robert Anderson

It's been a heck of a ride.

Shout out to my Kiedeisch family and to my pod squad family for making it through and staying real. My deepest apologies to those who witnessed my parking failures in the SHS lot.

Four years can change someone drastically. Long nights spent under the Denim Monster and exciting days spent in the midst of family. Although a torn meniscus wasn't fun and neither was 4 games, the Kevin's check prevailed. Even a troublesome tub of yogurt didn't stop the late night RTS and search of wild coyotes. Kermit the Frog and Cookie Monster gave us all laughs and my love for Rocky Balboa Papapietro and Montana never grew old. Thanks to my Mother, Father, and all of the people who made high school an unforgettable experience. Erica, Adam, and Ross, may the force be with you.

Live like Spongebob. Laugh out loud all day without reason and annoy the mean people with your happiness.

You guys might not know this,
but I consider myself a bit of a loner. I tend to think of myself as a one-man wolf pack. But when Adam came home, I knew he was one of my own.
And my wolf pack, it grew by
one. So were there two—so there were two of us in the wolf pack.
I was—I was alone first in the pack and then Adam joined in later. And six months ago....when Adam introduced me to you guys, I thought: Wait a second. Could it be? And now, I know for sure. I just added two more guys to my wolf pack....

Thank you to everyone who

I'd like to shout out Paddy and Iggy for hosting me in Germany and Spain during my exchange trips to Europe. I had lots of fun galavanting around Europe on bicycles and such. I'd also like to shout out John McCully for screaming at me relentlessly during club soccer season. Sorry Coach, I'm trying my best. Also wanted to shout out Lis for being a great guy to go to prom with #SorryLis. Big thanks to the parents for dragging me along the way. Also quite a large thank you to the AP Spanish gang, you got me through a class I was so very unprepared for. Have a good one Sandwich High.

From the Class Officers:

Dear Seniors,

We all descended the tall water slide at Water Wizz in eighth grade; leaving our years of multiplication tables and specials behind, we plunged into high school. We left the moldy classrooms of middle school behind, eager to experience the countless staircases of Sandwich High School. We came from Oak Ridge, Forestdale, and Wing, but at SHS, we are proudly known as the class of Blue Knights that just missed being in STEM. Each storm has broken the Boardwalk planks, but alike to our damaged beaches, we are resilient, destined for greatness. Throughout our years at Sandwich High School, it goes without saying, a lot has changed and happened along the way.

Freshman year, with faulty Chromebooks in hand, we were ready to take on the world. Whether it was firsthand experience of the development of the incredible DeConto Stadium, or basking in the glory of a classic game of musical chairs at the pep rallies, our greatness has truly shown and will continue to radiate as we tackle the next chapters of our lives. We have seen the ceilings, leaking from the rain on dreary days, and loosening screws of desks, yet we always find solutions. We are a generation of millennials marked by innovation, yet by some, laziness. Though we do love our lazy snow days, we have learned to embrace the chaos of a whirlwind of changes, random assemblies, and drills, with attitudes of eagerness and enthusiasm.

It is crazy looking back at freshman year and how much has changed; we have all matured in ways we never would have thought possible, as freshmen. High school is the place where we transition from middle school students into young adults. These last years are unforgettable, whether you enjoyed your time at Sandwich High or not, and we have developed characteristics that will be the base of our social and academic lives as we approach these next crucial years. Sitting back and watching this last semester made us worry less that every kid in our senior class would go on and succeed at whatever they plan to do. The amount of talent we've witnessed at SHS still shocks us today, from sports games to the school play, and we know we are bound to see one of our classmates on TV in the future.

Of course, our grade's achievements, events, and memorable experiences, throughout these past four years, would not have been possible without our dedicated class advisers. In her first year of teaching, Maria Cahill took on the challenge of guiding nervous freshmen, and has since then given us the confidence to become strong leaders. Chelsea Craig stepped in seamlessly to advise us in our senior year, and she has been a wealth of knowledge during our graduation planning. Thank you both for selflessly giving your time and effort to make sure our class has had an unforgettable high school experience. We are beyond grateful to you both!

To the Class of 2018, best of luck as we all progress into our respective paths of greatness.

"When the world knocks at your front door
Clutch the knob tightly and open on up
And run forward and far into its widespread, greeting arms
With your hands outstretched before you"
- Shake the Dust, Anis Mojgani

Thank you for this opportunity to serve as your class officers,
Julia Collentro, Jack LaRochelle, Jacob Govoni, Molly MacFarland, Anna Smillie, and Sara MacFarland

From SHS Principal James Mulcahy:

Congratulations to the Class of 2018!

As you graduate from high school, it is a time to look back at the memories you have created, and to look forward to new challenges and a new beginning. You have left your mark on Sandwich High School and our community. You are a class that is full of school spirit!

This was evidenced by the expansive extracurricular activities that you have enhanced during your time here at SHS, which have made us all proud of the continuous support that you shown each other.

Your diligence and determination in the classroom certainly paid off. The results can be seen in all that you've accomplished, from high scores on MCAS, AP, and SATs, to countless accolades for our athletic teams, performances in the arts, and everything that you have given back to your community.

Your achievements over the last four years, however, are just the beginning of all the great things you will set out to do in your lifetime. Be kind to each other, stay safe, and enjoy the journey. I wish you success and happiness in all of your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Mr. Mulcahy

From Class Advisers Maria Cahill and Chelsea Craig:

Dear Class of 2018:

Congratulations! Now that you're alumni of Sandwich High School, it's important to appreciate what you've just accomplished. Too often you are urged to think about what's next and in doing so, are unable to appreciate the now. Take a breath; you just completed a major life milestone. Your whole life lies before you like the glimmering ocean horizon. This is such an exciting time for you!

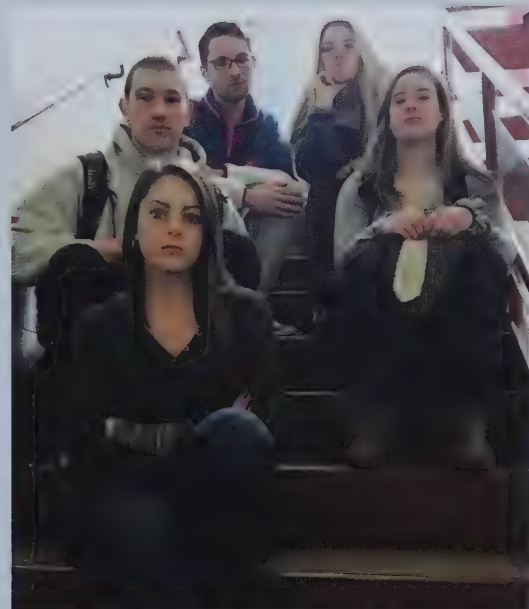

Thank you for including us in your growth, both personal and academic. It has been a pleasure to serve as your teachers and advisers over the past four years. From small fundraisers to a student concert as underclassmen, to extensive prom planning and senior week mapping, we hope you have embraced every bit of your high school experience. It is our hope, that through it all, you've learned a lot about yourself and others while having fun along the way. What a ride! Now, you embark on the exciting and challenging journey of adulthood. You will certainly continue to grow as you travel far and wide, but never forget where it all started. Sandwich High School will always be here to call you home, if and when you need it. We look forward, and have no doubt that you will go forth and change the world!

While we wish you a great future, what we really wish for you is a fulfilling and fantastic summer and the ability to appreciate the now. If you can learn to do this, appreciate what is happening in this moment, you will carry it with you to reflect on. If you forever focus on what's next, the tomorrows, you'll never truly have today.

Congratulations and good luck!

With love and BKP,

Ms. Cahill & Mrs. Craig

MASQUERADE

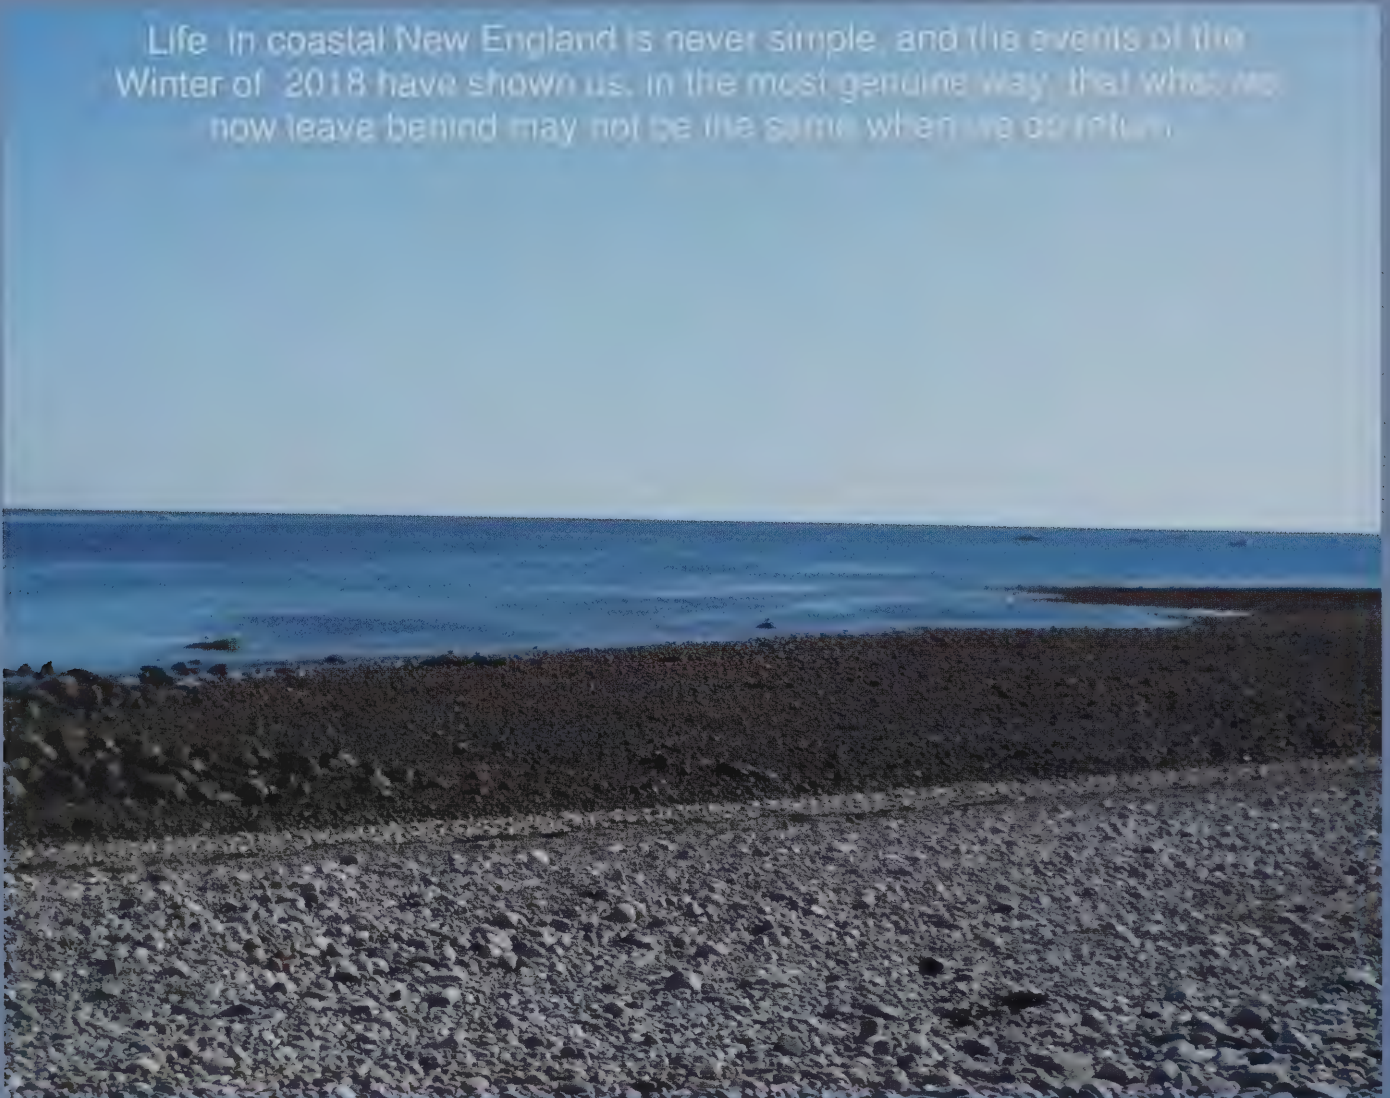

October. 25. 2017

Between our beach photo day, and the beginning of Spring, our Sandwich Boardwalk became fragments of its former self, and the barrier dune we crossed to get there disappeared.

Life in coastal New England is never simple, and the events of the Winter of 2018 have shown us, in the most genuine way, that what we now leave behind may not be the same when we do return.

THAT WAS THEN...

It is so easy to forget who we were when we arrived,
in September 2014,
from the Oak Ridge, Forestdale, and Henry T. Wing Schools.
From our currently elevated positions, the past is dim.
We thought everyone would like a brief reminder of the time that has sometimes flown and sometimes crawled by,
and include here our freshman section of the 2015 Lancer-- that's us!

Lancer 2018

As noted earlier, if we've learned one thing this year, it's that the world changes. A rainy winter gave way to an insane spring, with a three-peat of March Nor'Easters that left 97% of the town without power, took dozens of feet from the iconic dune, along with a few homes, too, and left the Boardwalk seemingly stranded in the Old Harbor marsh that was our front cover. As a town, we won't look quite the same ever again.

The good news is that some things in life don't change, like a yearbook once it's printed, or the work it takes to get it to the printed stage. A casual, "I'd like to work on yearbook," in September, becomes a real commitment of time and talent by December, when the senior pages are finished, January for the fall sports, February, for winter sports, and March for the activity sections. Along the way, add last May's Junior Prom photos, Camp Burgess, Homecoming, Masquerade, Beauty and the Beast, pleas for photographs (always), and the final deadline.

Each year, volunteers come forward (thank goodness), because without their altruism, there could not be this old-fashioned, hard copy, won't-change-with-the-years book. Sincere appreciation and thanks go to this year's Lancer leadership:

"Bates Boys"

Two words that make us smile with pride and love. While you are often lumped together by this affectionate name,

"Bates Boys," you are entirely unique people with incredible talents, interests, and accomplishments. After 18 years of "twice the trouble and double the fun," you are setting out on your own individual paths. We are so proud of the men you have become, the brothers that you are,
and the friendship you have built. Wherever life takes you, there will always be a "Bates Boy" by your side.

Congratulations on your high school careers!

Love,

Mom, Dad, Abby, and Rudy

Anne,

It seemed like forever before we were able to bring you home from the hospital, and then, the next 18 years flew by!! You are so special and your family loves you so much.

We can't wait to see your amazing future unfold. Stay strong, stay focused, and please, Baby Girl, stay in touch.

Love,

Mom, Todd, Peter, Grace, and Kurt

Dear Boo/Christopher/Chris

The only one of the Foxes who is a native Cape Codder, you've grown from a toddler always trying to catch up to your two big brothers, into your own unique person and a young man we're so proud to call our son. Under that sometimes hesitant exterior, you have a fierce soul, ready to protect those you love and care about. We've loved watching you grow and change, developing interests in things as varied as working the pizza ovens at Moto and snowboarding, to sneakers and the KTC tech crew. Crowell Road will never be the same without you, but we're so excited to see where you go in this next phase of your life as you begin your studies in cyber security.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Will, and Patrick

Congratulations, Julia

Your future is so bright! You have become a kind, hardworking, caring, beautiful young woman. We couldn't be any happier or prouder of you at this moment.

*Love you to the moon and back...
